

Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite

19th of July 2009 & The 7th Sunday after Pentecost

“Omnes gentes, plaudit”...

WELCOME to St. Joseph’s Church for the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass according to the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite. Join us as we render glory to God according to one of the Church’s historic liturgies, employing her rich treasury of sacred music.

THE CONGREGATION is encouraged to join the choir in the singing of the responses & the ordinary chants of the Mass.

“By their fruits you will know them...”

The gift of God is life everlasting. But to deserve it, we must, as good trees, bring forth good fruit. Pious words are not sufficient; we must yield the imperishable fruit of good deeds
–St Pius X Daily Missal

Romans 6: 19-23 19 I speak an human thing, because of the infirmity of your flesh. For as you have yielded your members to serve uncleanness and iniquity, unto iniquity; so now yield your members to serve justice, unto sanctification. 20 For when you were the servants of sin, you were free men to justice. 21 What fruit therefore had you then in those things, of which you are now ashamed? For the end of them is death. 22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end life everlasting. 23 For the wages of sin is death. But the grace of God, life everlasting, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Matthew 7: 15-21 15 Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. 16 By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? 17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. 19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, shall be cut down, and shall be cast into the fire. 20 Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them. 21 Not every one that saith to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doth the will of my Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven.
