

Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite

2nd of August 2009 & The 9th Sunday after Pentecost

“Ecce, Deus adiuvat me...”

WELCOME to St. Joseph’s Church for the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass according to the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite. Join us as we render glory to God according to one of the Church’s historic liturgies, employing her rich treasury of sacred music.

THE CONGREGATION is encouraged to join the choir in the singing of the responses & the ordinary chants of the Mass.

“My house is a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves.”

The history of the Old & New Testaments proves that God rewards & punishes even here on earth. Jerusalem rejected the Savior & it was destroyed. No temptation is so strong that we cannot conquer it with the grace of God, Who “will not permit you to be tempted beyond your strength.” –St Pius X Daily Missal

1 Cor. 10: 6-13 6 Now these things were done in a figure of us, that we should not covet evil things as they also coveted. 7 Neither become ye idolaters, as some of them, as it is written: The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. 8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and there fell in one day three and twenty thousand. 9 Neither let us tempt Christ: as some of them tempted, and perished by the serpents. 10 Neither do you murmur: as some of them murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer. 11 Now all these things happened to them in figure: and they are written for our correction, upon whom the ends of the world are come. 12 Wherefore he that thinketh himself to stand, let him take heed lest he fall. 13 Let no temptation take hold on you, but such as is human. And God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that which you are able: but will make also with temptation issue, that you may be able to bear it.

Luke 19: 41-47 41 And when he drew near, seeing the city, he wept over it, saying: 42 If thou also hadst known, and that in this thy day, the things that are to thy peace; but now they are hidden from thy eyes. 43 For the days shall come upon thee, and thy enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and straiten thee on every side, 44 And beat thee flat to the ground, and thy children who are in thee: and they shall not leave in thee a stone upon a stone: because thou hast not known the time of thy visitation. 45 And entering into the temple, he began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought. 46 Saying to them: It is written: My house is the house of prayer. But you have made it a den of thieves. 47 And he was teaching daily in the temple. And the chief priests and the scribes and the rulers of the people sought to destroy him: 48 And they found not what to do to him: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.
