Definitive text of the Motu Proprio
"Summorum Pontificum" published

Gianni Cardinale reports in the semi-official daily of the Italian Episcopal Conference, Avvenire (transcript), that the Motu Proprio Summorum Pontificum has been finally published in the official gazette of the Holy See, the Acta Apostolicae Sedis (dated September 7, 2007, and including the official acts of the preceding months), with the following changes:

A subtitle was given to the motu proprio: «De usu extraordinario antiquae formae Ritus Romani» ("On the extraordinary use of the ancient form of the Roman Rite");

In article 1, the word «conditiones» was replaced with the more correct form «condiciones», with no change in meaning ("conditions");

In article 3, the word «plerumque» was replaced with «habitualiter» (...translation remains "habitually");

In article 5, § 1, «continenter» was replaced with «stabilter», avoiding the notion that the group of faithful would have to be continuous in a certain parish - it only has to exist in a stable, but not necessarily in a permanent and continuous fashion;

In article 7, «non potest» ("cannot") was replaced with «non vult» ("does not want"): «Art. 7 If a group of lay faithful, as mentioned in art. 5 § 1, has not obtained satisfaction to their requests from the pastor, they should inform the diocesan bishop. The bishop is strongly requested to satisfy their wishes. If he does not want to arrange for such celebration to take place, the matter should be referred to the Pontifical Commission "Ecclesia Dei."»

Minor changes in Ecclesia Dei

From the news Bulletin of the Holy See Press Office:

The Holy Father Benedict XVI named Monsignor Camille Perl Vice-President of the Pontifical Commission "Ecclesia Dei", and has named the former Adjunct Secretary, Monsignor Mario Marini, to Perl's former position as Secretary of the same Commission.
