

FROM FATHER BILL: Congratulations to our High School Graduates. We wish you success & the best as you move into a new time of your life. Best wishes to our young folks who will begin their high school careers; and to our students who will enter Junior High. And please know that we are proud of the rest of our young people who will “MOVE UP” a grade. Kudos to your teachers who do such a great job in educating you. God bless all of you very specially. Remember what I said last Fall, “KNOWLEDGE IS POWER”.

MISSIONARY APPEAL: Brother John Sullo, CFC, of the Irish Christian Brothers, will make a special appeal for the Missions at our Masses next weekend, June 28/29. There will be a Second Collection for this worthy Missionary Cause. The proceeds of the appeal will benefit the missionary activity of the Brothers in Latin America. This APPEAL of the Christian Brothers is another way for you to bring the good news of Jesus to those in poor lands.

THANK YOU to all who helped plan last Sunday's special 3 P's Mass at St. Paul's. THANK YOU again to those who planned the reception following the Mass. MOST of ALL, THANK YOU to ALL THE PARISHIONERS of St. Peter's, St. Patrick's and St. Paul's who attended and participated in the Mass and Reception. Remember the words of Scripture: “FATHER, THAT THEY ALL MAY BE ONE.”
